*Tank Tops/Jerseys - Tank tops and jerseys will be allowed for lunch and dinner on non-Shabbat days. Shoulders should be covered at all meals and tefillot on Shabbat and at morning services and breakfast on all other days.

Shabbat clothes - Shabbat adds an entirely different level of holiness to our community. Most campers and staff wear blouses, dresses, skirts, sweaters, slacks, or button-down shirts. T-shirts, jeans, sweatpants, or shorts are not appropriate clothing for Friday night. For the rest of Shabbat, the camp culture is slightly more casual: nice shorts or plain t-shirts are appropriate.
